

DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL.

VOLUME XLIV.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1915.

NUMBER 28

Published every week.
$1.00, a year in advance

"There are more men ennobled by reading than by nature."

Entered at the Post Office, New York, N. Y.
as second class matter.

Weather Wise.

Wrinkled and old and gray,
With a magician's skill,
The spider toils each day
Weaving his threads of will.

Dew spangled on the lawn
His webs are all in place
Looking at peep of dawn
Like coverlets of lace.

Just at the rise of sun
His net he spins and spins,
And dewdrops, one by one,
Into the mesh he wins.

The day will then be fair,
No drop of rain will fall;
Children without a care
May picnic, one and all.

The spider's weather wise
And we can trust his sign,
The storms will not arise
To spoil the glad sunshine.

But had his webs he spun
Upright from spray to spray
No outdoor picnic fun
Could we have had that day.

—Philadelphia Record.

Leonardo Da Vinci.

Leonardo Da Vinci was born at the Castello of Vinci, near Empoli in 1452. From the hour that he was apprenticed to his master, Verrocchio, he proved that he was the superior of his master in art.

Da Vinci was one of the most remarkable men that ever lived, because he not only did an extraordinary number of things, but did all of them well. He was an engineer, made bridges, fortifications and plans which to this day are brilliant achievements. As a sculptor he executed one of the finest equestrian statues the world has ever seen—that of Francesco Sforza which was destroyed soon after it was made.

He was a naturalist of note, an author who has left a number of books written backwards, an inventor, and finally he was a most wonderful painter.

He had absolute faith in himself. Before he constructed his bridge he said that he could build the best one in the world and was not disappointed at the result.

Leonardo's experiments with oils and the mixing of pigments were not always successful, and as a result some of his most remarkable paintings have been lost to us.

His first fourteen years of work as an artist were spent in Milan, where he was employed to paint by the Duke of Milan, and never again was his life as peaceful; it was ever afterward full of change. He went from Milan to Venice, to Rome, to Florence, and back to Milan where his greatest work was done.

When Leonardo was a baby he lived in the Castle of Vinci. He was beautiful as a baby and very handsome as a man. When a child he wore long curls reaching below his waist and was richly clothed. He was greatly beloved by every one. He wished to learn everything that all other men have been known, and his memory was so wonderful that he remembered everything that he undertook to learn. His muscles were so powerful that he could bend iron, and all animals seemed drawn to him. One writer tells us that "he never could bear to see any creature treated cruelly, and that sometimes he would buy little caged birds that he might have the pleasure of opening the doors and setting them at liberty."

The story told of his first known work is that his master, being hurried in the finishing of a picture, permitted Leonardo to paint in an angel's head, and that it was done so much better than the rest of the picture that Verrocchio burned his brushes and broke his palette, determined never to paint again.

Leonardo was a first-rate toy-maker. He made mechanical toys that worked when they were wound up, and tried to invent a flying machine. He thought out the uses of steam as a power long before Fulton's time.

As a courtier Leonardo was elegant and full of amusing devices. He sang beautifully, accompanying himself on a silver lute.

Leonardo worked very slowly upon his paintings, because he was never satisfied with his work, and would retouch it day after day. Then, too, he was a man of moods, like more geniuses, and could not work with regularity. The picture of the "Last Supper" was painted in Milan, by the order of his patron, and there are many picturesque stories written of its production. It was painted upon the refectory wall of a Dominican convent, the Santa Maria delle Grazie, and at first the work went off well and the artist would remain upon his scaffolding from morning till night, absorbed in his painting. It is said that at such times he neither ate nor drank, forgetting all but his great work. He kept postponing the painting of two heads, Christ and Judas. That part of the work he deferred because he had certain conceptions of those features that he was hardly willing to trust himself to perform. He let that part of the work go month after month, and having already spent two years upon the picture, the monks began to urge him to a finish. He was not the man to endure much pressure, and finally began to feel a bitter dislike for the prior, the man who annoyed him the most. Finally, one day, the prior was nagging him about the work, Leonardo said, "If you will sit for the head of Judas I'll finish the picture at once." The prior was enraged, as Leonardo meant he should be; but Leonardo is said actually to have painted him in as Judas. Afterward he painted, in the face of Christ with haste and little care, simply because he despaired of ever doing the wonderful face which his art demanded of the ideal Christ should wear.

The one bitter moment in Leonardo's life, in all probability, was when he came into dire competition with Michael Angelo, his rival, whose sketch for the Palazzo Vecchio in Florence was accepted in preference to his own. This was more than he could bear, so he left Italy for France, where the king had invited him to come and spend the remainder of his life.

Before leaving Italy Leonardo had painted his one other greatest picture, "La Gioconda" (Mona Lisa) which he took with him to France and sold to the king. It now hangs in the Louvre in Paris as one of the priceless treasures of that great museum of art. This picture is considered by many to be the greatest portrait in the world.

Leonardo was the third person of a wonderful trinity of Florentine painters, Raphael and Michael Angelo being the other two.

He knew so much that he never doubted his own powers, but when he died, after three years in France, he left little behind him, and that little he had ever declared to be unfinished—the "Mona Lisa" and "The Last Supper."

In Milan, near the cathedral, there stands a monument to his memory, and about it are placed the statues of his pupils.

To this day he is wonderful among the great men of the world.—Rochester Advance.

How one Defeat was turned into a brilliant victory.

Napoleon was sitting in his tent. Before him lay a map of Italy. He took four pins and stuck them up, measured, moved the pins and measured again. "Now," said he, "that is right. I will capture him there!"

"Who, sir?" asked an officer.

"Milas, the old fox of Austria. He will retire from Genoa, pass Turin and fall back on Alexandria. I shall cross the Po, meet him on the plains of Laconia and conquer him there," and the finger of the child of destiny pointed to Marengo.

Two months later the memorable campaign of 1800 began. The 20th of May saw Napoleon on the heights of St. Bernard. The 23d, Lannes, with the army of Genoa, held Padua. So far all had been well with Napoleon. He had compelled the Austrian to take the position he desired, reduced the army from 120,000 to 40,000 men, dispatched Murat to the right, and June 14 moved forward to consummate his mastery plan.

But God threatened to overthrow his scheme! A little rain had fallen in the Alps, and the Po could not be crossed in time. The battle was begun. Milas, pushed to the wall, resolved to cut his way out, and Napoleon reached the field to see Lannes beaten. Champagne died, Desaix still charging old Milas with his Austrian phalanx at Marengo till the consular gave away, and the well planned victory was a terrible defeat.

Just as the day was lost Desaix, the boy general, sweeping across the field at the head of his cavalry, halted on the eminence where stood Napoleon. There was in the corps a drummer boy, a gamin whom Desaix had picked up in the streets of Paris. He had followed the victorious eagle of France in the campaigns of Egypt and Germany. As the columns halted, Napoleon shouted to him, "Beat a retreat!"

The boy did not stir.

"Gamin, beat a retreat!"

The boy straightened up, grasped his drumsticks, turned and looked Napoleon straight in the eyes, and said, "Sir, I do not know how to beat a retreat; Desaix never taught me that, but I can beat a charge—oh, I can beat a charge that will make the dead fall into line. I beat that charge at the Pyramids, I beat that charge at Mount Tabor, and I beat it again at the bridge of Lodi!"

Napoleon turned from the boy to Desaix and said, "We are beaten; what shall we do?"

"Do? Beat them! It is only 3 o'clock and there is time enough to win a victory yet. Up! the charge! beat the old charge of Mount Tabor and Lodi!"

A moment later the corps, following the sword gleam of Desaix and keeping step with the furious roll of the gamin's drum, swept down on the host of Austrians. They drove the first line back on the second—both on the third and there they died.

Desaix fell at the first volley, but the line never faltered, and as the smoke cleared away, the gamin was seen in front of his line marching right on and still beating the furious charge.

Over the dead and wounded, over breastworks and fallen foe, over cannons belching forth their fire of death, he led the way to victory, and the fifteen days in Italy were ended.

To day men point to Marengo in wonder. They admire the power and foresight that so skillfully handled the battle, but they forget that a general only thirty years of age made a victory of a defeat. They forget that a gamin of Paris put to shame "the child of destiny."—Anonymous.

Animals That Weep.

Did you know that there are certain animals which actually have been known to weep? When they are injured, seals have a very odd way of sobbing as if in deepest misery. They, as well as dolphins, appear very pathetic and sailors say they will move the hardest heart sometimes by the way in which they "carry on."

We have all heard of the way in which deer gaze mournfully at the hunter when shot. Bears do the same thing and great tears roll down their cheeks as they weep in greatest agony.

Monkeys, when teased, will often cry bitterly as, by motion pleading, they beseech their tormentors to stop plaguing them.

Cattle weep freely quite often and there used to be an expression about weeping like a calf. The young of nearly all beasts of burden do weep freely and long.

Perhaps the most sensitive animal is the elephant. The young weep when separated from the mothers and the old elephants will cry for days when they are captured. They do not make any sound, however. They weep very silently, their great eyes welling with tears which roll down their cheeks and drop to the ground at their feet.—Selected.

St. Thomas Mission for the Deaf

Christ Church Cathedral, Thirteenth and Locust Streets, St. Louis, Mo.

The Rev. James H. Cloud, M.A., D.D., Priest-in-Charge.
Mr. A. O. Steldemann, Lay Reader.
Miss Clara L. Steldemann, Sunday School Teacher and Social Helper.
Sunday Services at 9:30 A.M.
Weekday social and literary meetings on first and third Fridays, at 8 P.M.
Other services and meetings by special appointment.
The deaf cordially invited.
Minister's address: 2906 Virginia Avenue.

National Association of the Deaf.

Organized, August 25, 1880.
Incorporated, Feb. 23, 1900.

President: Jay C. Howard, A. L. Roberts, Minn.
Secretary: Harley D. Drake, Kan.
Treasurer: Walter Glover, S. C.
Mrs. A. Lashbrook, N. Y.
J. W. Howson, Cal.

Executive Committee:
Jay C. Howard, Minnesota
Owen G. Carroll, of Austin, Texas

Shelby W. Harris, of Jackson, Miss.
Arthur L. Roberts, of Olathe, Kansas.
Robert S. Taylor, of Mount Olive N. C.
Leo C. Williams, of San Francisco, Cal.
W. S. Root, of Seattle, Wash.
Walter G. Dulaney, Hartford, Ct.
John H. Keiser, New York.

Official.

Impositor Bureau.

Chief Odie Underhill reports the Florida Impositor measure was safely signed by the Governor. Number six.

The Illinois Trojans secured the passage of their pet measure through the House by a vote of 90 to 1, just before the Legislature adjourned. It had already passed the Senate 32 to 0. It was signed and became effective July 1st. Number seven.

Of all States we were most desirous of securing the adoption of an Impositor measure in California, not on account of the forthcoming National Convention of the Deaf, but because the sun-bathed California reports fairly teem with impostors when the rest of the country shivers and shakes in the grip of winter.

Chief Howson had a most difficult time in securing the passage of his bill mainly, because the Solon chosen to introduce it earned the bitter animosity of organized labor, a most potent factor out here on the coast.

Word has just been received from the Secretary of State that Governor Johnson gave it a pocket veto.

Out of the eight States passing such measures this year, California alone bears the odium of a veto. Governor Johnson will be remembered as Theodore Roosevelt's running mate on the Progressive ticket at the last presidential election.

Governor Johnson has always seemed a staunch friend of the deaf; his strong endorsement of the Combined System at the inquiry into the conduct of affairs at the California State School four years ago—resulting in the dismissal of an incompetent Superintendent—stamped him as an executive who would give us a fair, square deal and no favors.

Yet he alone saw fit to veto the measure to which the National Association of the Deaf, a body incorporated by act of Congress, was giving its whole-hearted, unanimous support.

There must be some reason. In fairness to a National leader who has heretofore been our friend, let judgment be suspended until Governor Johnson or his secretary can explain the whys and wherefores.

The Impositor Bureau is about ready for an official report to be submitted at San Francisco. "Gandop" Connor, Chief for Georgia, is endeavoring to get an Impositor measure through his Legislature now in session, and MacFarlane laid ropes for introducing one in the Alabama Legislature this month, before leaving for his home in Minneapolis. It is scarce likely that results in these States can be reported in time for the big Convention—but here's hoping.

Are you a Nad? If not, why not?

J. FERBERICK MRAGHER, Director.

Box B, VANCOUVER, WASH., July 1, 1915.

DE L'EPRE MEMORIAL STATUE FUND.

REPORT No. 14

Previously acknowledged in the JOURNAL of June 24, 1915. $1,468 48

The following list received from Mrs. Belle L. Marston, State agent for Kentucky, total $35.55, May 19.

Prof. and Mrs. G. M. McClure. 2 00
Miss Lula M. Bruce. 50
Miss Rufeld Joiner. 50
Prof. W. H. Carter. 50
Miss Emma Nicholas. 50
Mrs. H. P. Grow. 50
Miss Margaret Roberts. 50
Prof. C. T. Schofield. 1 00
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blount. 1 00
Mr. O. C. Meunier. 1 00
Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Marcoson. 2 00

Division No. 4, N. F. S. D. 5 00
Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Reed. 1 00
K. S. D. Literary Society. 2 35
Gordon Kamapel. 75
Robert Kamapel. 10
John Gullet. 10
Jesse Wooden. 10
Arthur Riley. 10
Eugene Rousseau. 10
Aaron Foreman. 10
Robert Barnett. 10
Harley Parrish. 10
Eugene McConnell. 10
Crawford Puggitt. 10
Pearl Webb. 10
Donovan Kerr. 10
Van Coomer. 10
Vaughan McKinney. 10
George McCord. 10
Dayton Schimmel. 10
Archie Stewart. 10
Louis Arowitz. 10
Steve Good. 10
Bernie Eiam. 10
Frank Auberry. 10
Henry Blackaby. 10
Cars Rogers. 10
Andy Smith. 10
Herbert Stewart. 10
Lillian Miller. 10
Grace Miller. 10
Ida Scott. 10
Mabel Harris. 10
Mary Caulfield. 10
Annie Griggs. 10
Gladys Flora. 10
Meredith. 10
Ruby Conley. 10
Hattie Miller. 10
Mabel Cox. 10
Cynthia Nusome. 10
Mary Nash. 10
Margaret Knecht. 10
Eula Needham. 10
Julian. 10
Annie Hollingworth. 10
Myrtle Cain. 10
Nannie Plannery. 10
Anna Thompson. 10
Nancy Floyd. 10
Mary Caulfield. 10
Elliott Smith. 10
Nellie Douglas. 10
May Douglas. 10
Bessie Douglas. 10
Bert Rogers. 10
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cowles. 10
Miss Gladys Ray. 10
Miss Ella Parker. 10
George J. Barron. 10
Mr. Hope Porter. 10
Miss Mattie Robinson. 10
M. J. L. 10
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swank. 10

Through Miss May Kennedy

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jernyn. 50
Mr. Dominic Beagi. 1 00
Mr. Sam McCarthy. 1 00
Mr. Edwin Castle. 50
Mr. James A. Pring. 50
Cass. 1 00
Andrew Drake. 50
Cash. 50

The following list received from John W. McCandless, State agent for Alabama, May 31st, 1915. Total $35.00

Miss G. Mann. 25
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Shibley. 25
N. A. McCutcher. 25
F. H. Hughes. 25
J. M. McFarlane. 25
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robertson. 25
Isabel V. Jenkins. 25
Joe Gordon. 25
N. Goodhue. 25
Jane Hoffman. 25
W. S. Johnson. 25
Joe A. Hiett. 25
J. W. McCandless. 25
Joseph Banks. 25
Fred Keston. 25
Joe Banks. 25
Mansfield Hogans. 25
Ava and Fred, Martin. 25
Three Russels. 25
Wm. Myatt. 25
Five little pupils. 25
Sallie Rembert. 25
Rare girls. 25
Rude. 25
Claudie Augusta. 25

Through Joe Brocato, Birmingham, Ala.

Urban Pattillo. 50
C. R. Taylor. 25
P. D. Reese. 25
Chas. L. Bailey. 25
Dan Watkins. 25
A. L. Shaw. 25
A. Arnold. 25
H. B. Washington. 25
E. B. Ward. 25
S. E. Anderson. 25
L. Herd. 25
T. L. Wagner. 25
W. W. Worrell. 25
S. E. Funderburk. 25
T. Gabbert. 25
H. Bailey. 25
Joe Kouse. 25
C. C. Lytle. 25
G. Jinks. 25
R. T. Anderson. 25
C. F. Shem. 25
Mrs. Brown. 25
Miss Ollie Hull. 25
Miss Esther Caran. 25
Miss J. H. Brocato. 25
Edward C. Campbell. 25
C. D. Ellison. 25
B. H. Carn. 25
F. Greco. 25
Irving Bachman. 25
Ed. Huddleston. 25
L. E. Reynolds. 25
F. H. Merritt. 25
J. H. Nipon. 25
H. H. C. 25
M. Sweet. 25
P. M. Erwing. 25
Ed. P. Lenciar. 25
L. J. Harris. 25
Jas. G. Smith. 25
P. Y. Newit. 25
M. Hart. 25
Thos. Greenwood. 25
Miss Lucile Rucke. 25

Collected by Walter Bell, of Birmingham, Ala., (Lists lost.) 16 25

(The following list received from Mr. S. M. Freeman, State agent for Georgia, June 1, 1915. Through Walter H. Christian, total $40.00)

W. F. Crusselle. 50
W. T. Brown. 50
W. F. Gholdston. 50
Miss Weaver. 25
Fred. Wall. 50
Riffee McCrary. 10
Mrs. H. Willingham. 25
H. Morris. 25
B. J. Malone. 25
W. H. Davis. 25
R. F. Young. 25
H. G. Moore. 25
H. H. Bartlett. 15
Albert Sessions. 1 00

Received from Mr. D. S. Rogers, Olathe, Kan., State agent for Kansas, June 14, 1915.

No list accompanied. 53 06

The following list received from Mr. Walter Postusta, Collector for Mason City, Ia., sent at request of Mr. Nelson, State agent for Iowa, June 14, 1915. Total $50.00

Louis Postusta. 50
Fred. Cruwell. 1 00
Sherman Clark. 50
Mrs. Smith. 50
Walter Postusta. 3 50

The following list received from Father McCarty, New York City, Philip Morris, agent for New England States, through J. B. McMahon, Lowell, Mass., June 14, 1915. $7.75

J. Bennett McMahon. 1 00
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Clark. 1 00
Nellie F. Stuart. 1 00
Laura E. Moulter. 1 00
Joseph Pelnaunt. 1 00
Henry Bilodeau. 25
Julien Roger. 25
Ella Hayes. 1 00
Frank E. Otis. 25
Addie Finnimore. 25
James M. Trainor. 1 00
John M. Lucy. 1 00
Alphonse Gosselin. 1 00

The following list received from Mr. P. R. Seeley, State agent for Nebraska, June 16, 1915. $8.50

P. R. Seeley. 50
W. H. Rothert. 1 00
Mary Smith. 1 00
Fred J. Hellsten. 25
L. J. Weltwer. 1 00
W. H. Merrill. 25
C. H. Stanley. 25
Merrill Stover. 25
Job. 25
Ota Blankenship. 25
Earl B. Haller. 25
Theodore B. Kellner. 25
Miss Edith Marshall. 25
John M. O'Brien. 25
Peter C. Anderson. 1 00
Fred P. Parlie. 1 00

The following list received from Wm. H. Zorn, State agent for Ohio, June 16, 1915. Through A. J. Becker, Sandusky, O., 60 cents.

A. J. Becker. 25
A. B. Davis. 25
Jacob Buyer. 10
Through Bessie Riddle and Blanche Coppock, Piqua, O., 75 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stonsowski. 20
Mr. and Mrs. F. Stonsowski. 10
Blanche Coppock. 25
Bessie L. Riddle. 25
Owen W. Riddle. 25

Through P. L. Stevenson, of Findland, O., $4.70

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Zubisles. 10
Carl Tron. 10
Ma. and Mrs. Tom Landon. 10
Mr. and Mrs. Wes Huebner. 10
Mr. and Mrs. John Merchant. 10
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Snider. 10
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ellis. 10
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Whitacre. 10
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitacre. 10
Ed. Schwartz. 25
Samuel McCarrabeau. 25
Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Stevenson. 10
O. Feller. 10
Cash. 10
R. O. Kennedy. 25

Through Harry Folkemer, of Springfield, Ohio.

Harry H. Folkemer. 50
Vera M. Hoskinson. 1 00
Charles Hess. 25
Mrs. Frank Redington. 25
Albert Walters. 25
Mrs. Frances Shaul. 10
Henry J. Swords. 10
Rafus Jefferies. 25
Frank Washington. 25
J. Perishing. 25
Frank Stokes. 25
Harry Folkemer. 25
Ralph Schutte. 35
Charles Wilson. 30
Henry J. Swords. 60

Through P. R. McMurray, of Canton, Ohio. Total $10.00

Mr. P. R. McMurray. 10
Alfred Moonin. 25
LeRoy C. Brown. 25
Robert Drake. 15
William Toomey. 15
Robert Dunlap. 15
George Homrighausen. 15
R. Dann. 15
George Kiumich. 15
William Durian. 15
Redman. 15
Schild. 15
R. Thomas. 15
Rauer. 10
Howard Durian. 10
William Rich. 10
A. Cowden. 10
D. Williams. 10
A. M. Price. 10

Through Louis J. Bacheberle, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Total $16.15

L. J. Bacheberle. 1 00
John H. Bov. 50
McBlevine Key. 50
Ray M. Bingham. 50
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Desilver. 1 00
Joseph Lawson. 25
Mr. and Mrs. J. Shroshire. 25
Fred J. Goetz. 25

S. Page Harris. 1 00
Mr. and Mrs. H. Rikens. 50
Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Wortman. 50
Emil Schneider. 50
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper. 50
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Steele. 50
Max Blachschleger. 1 00
Robert B. Schneider. 1 00
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Hoy. 1 00
Arthur Wenner. 25
J. E. Melampy. 25
Buford Allen. 25
Sam. J. Taylor. 25
Wylie D. Ross. 25
Edgar McHay. 25
J. S. Walker. 10
Joseph Fisher. 10
Wiltshire Oxley. 25
Wm. G. Harnmeyer. 25
Jos. R. Goldman. 1 00
J. Barry Taylor. 25
Dr. A. H. Clancy. 50
Julius Salzer. 25
Leonard Sporing. 25
L. A. Richardson. 25
R. E. Cottner. 25
Chas. H. Fry. 10
Arlo Ervin. 10
Irene Burton. 25
William Blust. 25

Through Fred O'Brien and L. J. Bacheberle, of Cincinnati, Ohio, $3.25

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. O'Brien. 1 00
Wm. Farwick. 1 00
Thomas Savage. 1 00
Geo. J. Tobin. 1 00
Clara Hackman. 50
James E. Shropshire. 25
John Maschinet. 50
Harry Kestenstein. 1 00
Florent Berchert. 1 00
Frank Lense. 25
Anna Christoffel. 25
Mary Melcher. 25
Henrietta Krenzman. 25
Ocellia Venemann. 25
Clifford F. E. Merhost. 25
Harry O'Donnell. 1 00
Joseph A. Miller. 50
Geo. E. Bergmann, Jr. 1 00
John Moeller. 50
John Fahy. 25
R. J. Taran. 25
Helen Schmitt. 25
Emma Dinkelsaar. 25
Martin O'Dowd. 25
May Goshing. 25

The following list received from Mrs. Eva Seeley, State agent for Washington, June 17, 1915. $7.25

Eva Seeley. 1 00
Alice S. Hammond. 1 00
Chas. Hammond and wife. 1 00
Maurice S. Miller. 1 00
G. Gerson. 25
John Bodley. 3 00

Grand Total. $1,663 22

ANTON SCHROEDER.

Treas. De l'Espe Mm. Statue Com.

2172 Carroll Ave., St. Paul, Minn.

July 2, 1915.

NEW MEMBERS OF THE N. A. D.

THROUGH K. V. KEMP.

Morrison, George, Boulder, Mont. 20
Twiss, Earl, Boulder, Mont. 10
Smith, Mrs. Anna, Boulder, Mont. 10
Ross, Miss Marguerite, Missoula, Mont. 10
Stoppel, Augusta, Missoula, Mont. 10
Knoff, Louis, Deer Lodge, Mont. 25
Brandt, Harold, Carter, Mont. 25
McCoy, Miss Mary, Twin Bridge, Mont. 25
Anderson, John E. C., Boulder, Mont. 25
Nelson, Miss Rosetta, Lewiston, Mont. 25
Steffens, Mrs. Ida, Bozeman, Mont. 25
Patrick, Henry, Pony, Mont. 25
Miles, Miss Mabel, Butte, Mont. 25
Dahl, Elias, Reed Point, Mont. 25
Clark, John L., Glacier Park, Mont. 25
Ryan, Robert, Valier, Mont. 25
Hays, Leroy, Edgar, Mont. 25

THROUGH MR. ROOT.

Coe, Miss Cora E., Redmond, Wash. 20
Landovsky, Harry W., Port Angeles, Wash. 20

H. D. DRAKE, Treas.

ALL SOULS' CHURCH FOR THE DEAF

Sixteenth Street, above Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. C. O. DANTZER, Pastor, 8325 N. 10th St.

Holy Communion—First Sunday, 3:00 P.M., Third Sunday, 10:30 A.M.

Morning Prayer—First Sunday, 10:30

Deaf-Mutes' Journal.

NEW YORK, JULY 15, 1915.

EDWIN A. HODGSON, Editor.

THE DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL (published by the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb, at W. 166d Street and Ft. Washington Avenue) is issued every Thursday; it is the best paper for deaf-mutes published; it contains the latest news and correspondence; the best writers contribute to it.

TERMS.

One Copy, one year $1.00

CONTRIBUTIONS.

All contributions must be accompanied with the name and address of the writer not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Correspondents are alone responsible for views and opinions expressed in their communications.

Contributions, subscriptions and Business Letters to be sent to the

DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL,
Station M, New York.

"He's true to God who's true to man :
Wherever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest
Neath the all-beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves,
And not for all the race."

Specimen copies sent to any address on receipt of five cents.

Notices concerning the whereabouts of individuals will be charged for at the rate of ten cents a line.

THE train that left the New York Grand Central Station at 12:50 P.M., last Friday, July 6th, carried Chicagoward eleven of the delegates to the San Francisco Convention of the National Association of the Deaf.

They were Rev. John H. Keiser, Mr. and Mrs. Heyman, Miss Alice E. Judge, Mrs. Weil, Mrs. Katie Russell, Miss Irene Russell, Mr. Isaac Newton Soper, Mr. Edwin A. Hodgson, Mrs. Mary L. Haight, Mrs. Margaret J. Syle. At Albany Miss Minnie M. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Frisbee, joined the party, bringing the total up to fourteen. Miss Lillie Lindhoff was booked to go along, had her ticket purchased and reservations made, but was obliged to stay in New York because of the serious illness of her mother, who was removed to a hospital and died on Monday, July 12th, 1915.

The delegates arrived in Chicago on time, and with the exception of Miss Judge, who is a guest of Miss Marie Tanzar, are stopping at the Hotel La Salle.

On Saturday evening, under the convoy of Mr. Purdum's guidance, Messrs. Keiser, Soper, Hodgson, Heyman, visited the rooms of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, on the fifth floor of the Mechanics Building. They were greeted cordially by over one hundred Frats.

Later in the evening still under Mr. Purdum's guidance, Messrs. Keiser, Soper, Hodgson, Heyman, visited the rooms of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, on the fifth floor of the Mechanics Building. They were greeted cordially by over one hundred Frats.

To-night (Sunday) at eleven o'clock the Special of the Chicago and North Western Railway will carry over half a hundred on the second leg of the journey, which brings them as far as Omaha and offers a 5-hour stay to see that big and bustling city. It is expected that a big crowd will join the party at this point, with still others to pick up at different stopping places as the train speeds across the continent towards the Golden Gate.

WEDDING BELLS.

Miss Emma Marietta Scott, daughter of Mr. John B. Scott, of Winsted, Ct., and Augustus Gordon Marshall, of Port Chester, N. Y., son of Abraham T. Marshall, were married, Saturday, July 10th, 1915, at noon, in the Parish House Chapel of St. John's Episcopal Church, Waterbury, Ct. Only the relatives and a few neighborhood friends were present. The room was very prettily decorated with daisies and ferns, white and green crepe paper, and with American beauty roses on altar. After the wedding a reception was held with lunch at Mrs. Trope's tea room at the Kingsbury Hotel. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will make their home at Port Chester, N. Y., and will be at home to their friends at Stephenson Park, after September 1st. Both are well known graduates of the Hartford School, and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

ENGLAND

THE LATE SIR A. FAIRBAIRN.

From the Tunbridge Wells (England) Courier, June 11, 1915.

We regret to record the death of a comparatively new but distinguished resident of Tunbridge Wells, Sir Arthur Henderson Fairbairn, Bart. Sir Arthur passed away on Wednesday week at his residence, Dulcote, 33, Broadwater Down, after an attack of influenza. It was only a few months ago that he came to reside at Tunbridge Wells, on the advice of his medical practitioner, and Tunbridge Wells has to lament the death of a gentleman who was very widely esteemed. Sir Arthur, who had the misfortune to be deaf and dumb, for many years displayed very warm and sympathetic interest in the various institutions which exist for those who are similarly afflicted. He was very well-known as a liberal supporter of such charities.

The deceased gentleman, who was the eldest son of the late Sir Thomas Fairbairn, came to Tunbridge Wells from Chichester. He was in his 64th year, and was the third holder of the title, which was conferred upon Sir William Fairbairn, a distinguished scientist. He received his education at Rugby, and married a sister of the Right Hon. Walter Long, M.P., but leaves no children. Among the numerous positions he held was that of Hon. Treasurer to the Royal Association for the Deaf and Dumb, a member of the Committee of the Deaf and Dumb Institution, Brighton, and Vice-President of the St. Saviour's Provident Society, which provides pensions for aged deaf and dumb persons. His benefactions were very widespread.

THE FUNERAL.

Amid many manifestations of mourning the deceased baronet was laid to rest in the Borough Cemetery on Monday afternoon. A very impressive service, in deaf and dumb language, was conducted in St. Mark's Church by the Rev. A. G. Locke, Vicar of St. Thomas' Church, Portman Square, London, and Chairman of the Royal Association in Aid of the Deaf and Dumb. Other clergy present included the Vicar of St. Mark's (the Rev. J. F. A. Wickstead), the Rev. F. W. G. Gilby, M.A., Supt. Chaplain of the Royal Association; the Rev. W. Raper, South East London District Chaplain of the Royal Association; the Rev. A. Smith, Chaplain of the Constance Fairbairn Memorial Church, West Ham; the Rev. Vernon Jones, M.A., Chaplain of the North London District; the Rev. G. J. Chetwynd, Chaplain of the South West London District; and the Rev. R. Pearce, Chaplain of the Winchester Diocesan Mission to the Deaf and Dumb. Mr. W. W. Starmer, F.R.A.M., was at the organ, and the choir gave beautiful renderings of the hymns "On the Resurrection Morning," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "Jesus Lives." Many in the congregation were deaf and dumb, and a valedictory address by the Rev. A. G. Locke was delivered both orally and by means of the signs used by the deaf and dumb. The preacher observed that by the death of Sir Arthur Fairbairn they had lost a very dear and valued friend, whose place they felt no one could adequately fill. Sorrow had opened their eyes to the position which the departed had filled in the lives of so many of them. Most of them knew well of Sir Arthur's life work, and appreciated the whole-hearted manner in which he had devoted himself to the cause of those who were afflicted in the same way as himself. The deceased had used his great affliction in a spirit of true sympathy, and they felt that he had been sent amongst them with that affliction in order that he might help others. They all felt that day that Sir Arthur's life had not been lived in vain, and they would ever feel his noble example and his spirit encouraging them to a continuance of his great work.

The cortege then proceeded to the Borough Cemetery for the interment.

The chief mourners were Mr. Brook Fairbairn (brother), Mrs. Kerkenton (sister), Mrs. Adair Fairbairn (aunt), Mrs. Rosamond Fairbairn (cousin), the Rev. W. F. La Trobe-Bateman, of Ascot (cousin), Mr. Percy Fairbairn (cousin), Miss Englewood, of London; Mr. F. Sims, (Brighton); Mrs. Gilby, Mr. Graham W. Sims, (Secretary of the Royal Association in Aid of the Deaf and Dumb); Mr. T. A. Macdonald, Missionary in the South West London District of the Royal Association; the Misses R. Mangham and I. Hemmings, lady workers in the same district; Mr. Manser; Mr. J. May, Head of the Home for Deaf Men, Belvedere, Kent; Miss Sleight and Mr. A. M. Sleight, Brighton Institution for Deaf and Dumb; Mrs. and Mr. F. R. Hersee, Chichester Diocesan Mission to Deaf and Dumb; Mr. Walter and Mr. Albert Head, Chichester Diocesan Mission to Deaf and Dumb; Mr. W. J. McCormick, Missionary, Oldham Mission to Deaf and Dumb; Mr. A. Doncaster, London; Mr. J. Hipkins, London; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson, London; Mr. W. C. Cossart, London; Mr. E.

A. Foster, London; Mr. A. H. Dawson, London; Mr. Bisson, London; Miss Ethel Egan-Desmond; Mrs. Wheatley, Croydon; Mr. Moffis (butler); Mr. Steele (gardener); Miss Barber (upper housemaid); Miss Brown (under housemaid).

Many representatives of Institutions for the deaf and dumb with which Sir Arthur had been connected were also present in the church and at the grave side.

The following acted as bearers—Messrs. E. F. Inwood, L. J. Hale, Brown, Standen, A. Ayton, A. C. Winch, Albert Sligh, and W. R. Shotton. All the pall-bearers are deaf-mutes, and one of them, Mr. Inwood, is an old pupil of the Deaf and Dumb Institution, Brighton.

The numerous beautiful floral tributes included those sent by the following: Mrs. Adam Fairbairn, Miss G. Englewood, the Rev. and Hon. G. Pearce, the Viscountess Dapplin, Sir E. and Lady Venning, Miss Barton, Mr. and Mrs. May, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Philpot, Indoor and Outdoor Servants, Mr. and Mrs. Wheatley, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Barnes, and others from the various Deaf and Dumb Institutions.

The wreath sent by the Committee of the Deaf and Dumb Institution, Brighton, the Headmaster (Mr. Arthur M. Sleight), and the staff and children contained the following inscription: "With deep sorrow and in grateful recognition of much kind and valued help rendered to the Brighton Institution for the Deaf and Dumb. From the Committee, the Headmaster and his sister (Mr. A. and Miss K. Sleight), the Teaching Staff and Pupils of the above School."

Unkindly Criticism.

It seems to me an opportune occasion to say a few brief things in regard to the misguided and discipline destroying habit of our deaf in harshly criticising some of our members who are holding various high offices in some of our National organizations and this of course applies as well to a lesser degree to criticism of local officers. This habit seems so general among them that it is very often taken as a matter of course and considered strictly right and proper, and I believe is seldom indulged in with any vicious intent. But is it right or proper? One of the most underlying causes of this seems to be jealousy. How then can an organization succeed in accomplishing its aim if such discord should prevail in the rank and file because of this jealousy? Would it not be better to apply to modern principals to your organization than to unceremoniously attack your officers whom you and your members elected? Then why not apply this motto to your organization, "If I cannot speak well of a brother I shall not speak ill of him." If this rule was applied to all societies, no matter what their character, whether it be religious, social, charitable, business or insurance, would be one of the strongest foundation stones to success to your organization and would bring all around a kindly feeling. The deaf need so much kindness and fair dealing one to another.

Our officers are human even though they are for the time being our superiors, which superiority is only temporary and was in most cases earned through exceptional effort in behalf of their organization, and they will err, as do all human beings; but they are susceptible to kindness as are the rank and file. How much better there it would be, how much more satisfactory to give them a square deal. The worst criminals are given a hearing before fair and impartial men, at least we give them this as far as we are able to, and yet we are inclined to condemn our own officers for a seeming laxity in the discharge of their duties without giving them an opportunity to defend themselves. No real man objects to an honest and kindly criticism. By this I mean that if you are convinced that you have reason to find fault with an officer, go to him personally if you can or write him a kindly, brotherly letter asking him for his opinion in regard to the matter you have in mind. Do not seek to undermine him in any underhanded manner; neither should you immediately announce your opinion from the house tops so that all the world may hear, and having a leader join you in your unkindness, but give him an opportunity to explain to you his reasons for his actions.

It is unnecessary for me to cite any particular case in which some of our members have acted as I claim. We can recall occasions of this kind, and I can recall now, where any good was accomplished by harshly criticising one of our officers. On the other hand I am convinced that much good can be done by employing the other way, and when we are convinced that one of our officers is becoming lax in the performance of his duties, go slowly and first have a quiet heart to heart talk with him, and the chances are when you get through, you will not be half as angry or indignant as you were.

This article is by no means directed against any individual or organization, but it is my deduction from having observed the effects of unkindly criticism, not only as directed against myself or any other officer, but in the various walks of life, and if it has given you a kindly thought, please nurse it and foster it, and allow it to grow, so that we may in time enjoy a real Brotherhood of man.

A. J. NOVOTNY.

CHICAGO, July 10, 1915.

TIN WEDDING—1905-1915.

LOEWENHERZ-SCHIFFRIN.

"Ten years of Wedded Happiness—A decade that leaves affection undecayed."

In a handsome cottage in the colonial town of Flushing, N. Y., there gathered last Saturday evening, the 10th inst., a host of friends to celebrate the tin wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Loewenherz and to wish them many more happy years of wedded life. A lively conversation was carried on, while scouts were out at the various railroad and trolley stations to rescue the bewildered visitors and to tow them safely to Mansion Low-Schiff, but none came.

At eleven o'clock the company was seated at a long and tastefully decorated table bountifully supplied with genuine chicken salad, potato salad of the right make, small white onions, olives, pickles, and pickles of other kinds, exquisite tongue, corned beef, sardines with cuts of lemon, bread, chocolate cream, fruits of all kinds in one big centre piece, fancy assorted cakes, excellent ice-cream, Pabst beer, lemon soda, ginger ale, sarsaparilla and the big wedding cake. As everybody seemed unwilling to cut the big cake, two hundred and fifteen pounds, Frank Nubor was induced to take the job. He started in with a statement, orally and by signs, to the effect that it was said that there was a $10 gold piece inside of that tempting mound cake—the lucky married person would have a child, boy or girl, during 1915, and if a single person should be the lucky winner of the coin, he or she would get married during this year.

There was lots of innocent fun, jokes and witty sayings were banded and back forth. Set speeches were tabooed. About one o'clock in the morning a delegation from the Polyseum Club, a leading social and literary society of Flushing, came to pay their respects and best wishes to the happy couple, Sam and Mattie. Probably the members had a heated debate because the ice-cream was hailed with joy and disappeared before you could wink five times.

The presents consisted of a bronze electroliter with the figure of Venus, a lot of silver knives, forks, table spoons, tea spoons, a cereal set of fifteen pieces, an exquisite silver filigree and glass jam jar with cover and spoon, and an aluminum asparagus boiler.

Letters of regret were received from Mr. and Mrs. Max Nemeth, Misses Ida and Ruby Abrams, James B. Gass, Miss Gussie and Alfred Ernst.

Fancy dancing was indulged in after supper, the best dancers being Lyman Metzger and Keith Watt Morris. But chicken farmer Morris jumped on Nubor's sore big toe, so that the latter had to limp all the way to New York and to bed.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Loewenherz, Mrs. M. Schiff, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus H. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Gomprecht, Mr. and Mrs. Goldfish, Mr. Finkels, the Misses Regina Bogner, and Bessie Kaplan, the Messrs. Joe Goldstein, Samuel Prienik, Keith Watt Morris, Solomon Bittenheim, Lyman Metzger; of the Polyseum Club came David Fisk, the President, Jack S. Kahn, Vice-President, Misses Florence and Sophie Ljvendag, Minnie G. and Mollie Schiff, Messrs. Isidor Zwelling, and Morton Braus, and I almost forgot Francis W. Nubor.

By the way nobody announced that he or she had discovered that ten dollars in gold, but some body looked very suspicious and I will wager that that one got the tin check marked "10."

Epicure Nubor desires Epicure Hodgson to know that he missed a dandy good supper.

At one-thirty in the morning the party dispersed for home, one bunch followed Mr. Morris, one bunch went south to Brooklyn and the other bunch entrusted themselves entirely to traveler Nubor, who managed to take them in the most direct way in a few minutes to the Public Library where at 1:40 they caught the trolley car for New York over the Queensboro Bridge with assurance of arriving in New York by two o'clock. The usual time is about forty-five minutes by trolley and naturally they thought a joke was being played on them, but a man knows when he has been traveling extensively. When they emerged from the trolley loop in New York at 50th Street, it was just two o'clock.

Mr. Morris's party has not been heard from yet.

"Tin weddings, and the bright reflections to which they give rise." F. W. N.

ILLINOIS.

TRIENNIAL REUNION AT JACKSONVILLE, JUNE 12 AND 13.

The following account of the closing session of the Reunion is taken from the Jacksonville Journal of June 15th, and is a continuation of the first report which appeared in the JOURNAL July 1st:—

The Alumni Reunion of the State School for the Deaf and the gathering of the State Association of Deaf-Mutes came to a close on the afternoon of June 14th and most of the delegates took trains for their respective homes greatly pleased with the three days enjoyed in the Institution. Supt. Gillett, President Wm. I. Tilton of the Alumni Association and all connected with the Institution were untiring in their efforts to entertain the visitors and certainly they well succeeded.

Sunday, according to arrangement, a committee visited Diamond Grove Cemetery and reverently decorated the graves of Dr. P. G. Gillett and of the teachers buried there, showing a tribute of respect to those who had been so instrumental in the uplift and education of the pupils who had attended the Institution.

The chapel service conducted Sunday morning by Dr. Philip J. Hazenstab and Rev. Henry Rutherford, both of Chicago, was enjoyed by all the visitors and was deeply impressive. Both gentlemen are earnest Christians and devoted to the spiritual welfare of their fellow beings and are laboring zealously for the good cause.

At the business sessions Monday officers were elected as follows:

ILLINOIS ASSOCIATION OF THE DEAF.

President—E. P. Cleary, Jacksonville.

First Vice-President—Miss Anna Roper, Alton.

Secretary—Frank A. Johnson, Chicago.

Treasurer—H. D. Synder, Jacksonville.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

President—T. J. Hainline, Elkhart, Ind.

First Vice-President—A. J. Rodenberger, East St. Louis.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. E. E. Carlson, Chicago.

Third Vice-President—Mrs. G. T. Dougherty, Chicago.

Secretary—Mrs. F. P. Fawcner, Cairo.

Treasurer—H. A. Molohon, Jacksonville.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Resolved, That we endorse the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf;

Resolved, That our experience in life has shown us that the combined method of instruction does the greatest good for the greatest number.

Resolved, That we appreciate very highly the wise consideration for the welfare of our school as shown by Gov. Duane in the retention of Mr. C. P. Gillett as superintendent of the school solely on account of his pre-eminent fitness for the responsible position.

WHEREAS, The Illinois School for the Deaf is an institution founded solely with a view to giving the deaf children of the State their share of the birthright of education along with their brothers and sisters who can hear, and whereas our school is now classified in the same group as penal, correctional and curative institutions;

Resolved, That we consider the classification as an error and that we favor such changes in the law governing our school as will remedy this defect.

Resolved, That we heartily commend the wise and efficient management of the Illinois School for the Deaf under the superintendency of Mr. Charles P. Gillett.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to the State Board of Administration for their hospitality in opening the doors of the Institution for our entertainment during our convention.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to Mr. Charles P. Gillett, the Superintendent; Miss Rhoda Woodall, the matron; Miss Alma Gillett, Mr. Thomas Cranwell, Mrs. Sarah Sanders, and various assistants for the indefatigable efforts to make our stay as pleasant as possible.

Resolved, That our thanks are due the Jacksonville Daily Journal and the Daily Jacksonville Courier for their generosity in yielding space to give publication to our proceedings.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to Mr. Charles P. Gillett for the rare treat to an entertainment of moving pictures of lectures delivered in the sign language at Scott's theatre, and to Mr. Scott for the use of the theatre.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to the local committee of arrangement for their successful effort to make our meetings both pleasurable and profitable.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to the various local associations and individuals for their assistance in helping to raise money for the Home Fund.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y.

Mrs. Rose Drusky, who was confined in the County House for three weeks with a bad cold is now better.

The judgment and action of Rose Drusky against the Schenectady Railway Company, in which she recovered $6,500 for the death of her husband, a deaf-mute, was unanimously confirmed by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in Albany recently. The able lawyer, J. C. Cooper, appeared for her.

Arthur T. Bailey, an intelligent boy who was educated at the Fanwood School, departed from this city the first of the month, to attend the convention of the Frats at Omaha, Neb. He will represent the Frats of Albany and Schenectady. We hope that when he returns he will be much improved in health, and that he will entertain the deaf hereabouts with interesting stories.

John Kooper is all smiles these days, because he is kept busy at the Schenectady Locomotive Pattern Shops.

Edward Klier is busily employed by Ball Bros. in their shoe shop, and consequently cannot spare any time visiting around. He is thinking very seriously of purchasing a motor cycle with a side car.

Wilson Carmichael has accepted a position to work nights. Recently he delivered an interesting address before the deaf.

The writer has purchased a motor cycle and has been riding from Seekirk, Catskill and Mariaville, and ere long expects to ride as far as Boston, Mass. In August he has a week's vacation with full pay.

The G. E. patternmakers, where the writer is employed, were ordered to strike recently, but now happily everything has been settled satisfactorily on both sides.

The writer expects to visit the Fanwood School and Harry Barnes soon. The mother of Harry lives in Schenectady, N. Y.

Mr. Layman was married to Miss Sack three weeks ago. They both attended the Albany Oral School. After their honeymoon they will settle down in Albany.

Edward Klier, Arthur Bailey and Fred Lloyd had a most enjoyable time riding from this city to Albany by automobile not long since.

It is learned here that in Cincinnati a deaf-mute has secured a license from the city authorities to run his own automobile.

The G. E. patternmakers went back to work last Tuesday.

Charles Nordgren, who is one of those to return to work has a deaf-mute wife, aged twenty-four years, who is an expert lip-reader.

JAMES M. WITBECK.
July 5, 1915.

Sophia Fowler Gallaudet.

FUND FOR A MEMORIAL TABLET BEING RAISED BY DEAF LADIES OF THE UNITED STATES.

We, the undersigned ladies, wishing to give our cordial approval to the proposition of Mrs. Susie Benedict Bryant, to mark by an enduring memorial the early home of Mrs. Sophia Fowler Gallaudet, wife of Rev. Thomas H. Gallaudet and mother of Dr. E. M. Gallaudet, do hereby subscribe the sum opposite our names, for the placing of a bronze tablet on a granite boulder at the gate of the homestead near Guilford, Ct., thereon commemorating the virtues of a wife and mother who gave the deaf the Gallaudet sons, and thus mark a historic spot.

Previously acknowledged . . . $212 37

Through Miss Elizabeth De Long, Collector for Utah.

Mrs. Paul Mark . . . . . 2 00
Naomi Wright . . . . . 1 00
Mrs. Nephil Larson . . . . . 10
Mary Woolsey . . . . . 10
Mrs. E. M. Briggs . . . . . 10
Mrs. Ruth Slot . . . . . 10
Lizzie Egginton . . . . . 10
Irene Egginton . . . . . 10
The Osbornes . . . . . 10
Elsie Christiansen . . . . . 10
Emma Emmertson . . . . . 10
Mrs. Elgin Jacobson . . . . . 10
Mrs. Alex. Wright . . . . . 10
Elizabeth De Long . . . . . 50

Through Mrs. Philip J. Hastenstab, Collector for Illinois.

Miss Virginia Butler . . . . . 2 00
Mrs. G. T. Dougherty . . . . . 1 00
Mrs. E. W. Heber . . . . . 10
Marie Deja . . . . . 10
Mrs. Wellis Orr . . . . . 10
Mrs. William . . . . . 10
Mrs. O. L. Halstrand . . . . . 10
Mrs. J. F. Roth . . . . . 10
Mrs. Philip Jacoby . . . . . 10
Mrs. D. W. George . . . . . 05
Addie Blush . . . . . 05
Gertie Fulton . . . . . 25
Mrs. Victor Swanson . . . . . 25
Mrs. Harry Hanna . . . . . 25
Mrs. J. H. Gibney . . . . . 10
Mrs. F. A. Martin . . . . . 05
Ethel Reffery . . . . . 10
Katie Hieronymus . . . . . 10
Pearl Madzinski . . . . . 15
Mrs. A. Rodenberger . . . . . 10
Mrs. Lafayette Patton . . . . . 25
Mrs. Alma Morehead . . . . . 10
Mrs. Arthur Johnson . . . . . 10
Mrs. H. D. Snyder . . . . . 10
Leonora Bjerkquest . . . . . 25
Mrs. Lillian Stout . . . . . 10
Mrs. M. Lebkechler . . . . . 10
Mrs. E. H. . . . . 05
Mrs. Wm. Coffman . . . . . 10
Mrs. Minnie R. Sullivan . . . . . 25
Mrs. Ida Lowe . . . . . 10
Mrs. Hartle . . . . . 25
Mrs. Fred Fawcner . . . . . 25
Mrs. Felix Lapien . . . . . 10
Mrs. Ernest Tilton . . . . . 10
Mrs. Henry Doonbush . . . . . 50
Mrs. Christian Koenig . . . . . 25
Mrs. Frank E. Rosenke . . . . . 25
Agnes Coleman . . . . . 10
Marie Liston . . . . . 25
Mrs. C. F. Stroheker and friends . . . . . 60
Mrs. P. J. Hastenstab . . . . . 25

Total to date . . . . . $225 32

JEANETTE W. HEYMAN,
Treasurer.

York, Pa.

A large gathering of deaf-mutes from various parts of the country attended the enjoyable outing held at Cold Springs Park on July 5th. Among those present were the following:

Miss Emily Sterek, Sylvester Benedict, and George H. Porter, Jr., all of Philadelphia; Miss Florence Novinger, David, Charles and Roy Stiles, all of Millersburg, Pa.; Miss Sarah Livingston, of Oberlin, Pa.; Miss Eva Rowe, of Strasburg, Pa.; Misses Ida and Martha Stamm, of Mountville, Pa.; Mrs. George Brown, of Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Elsie Zellers, of Reading, Pa.;

Hugh Boyd, of Raleigh, N. C.; Robert Quinn, of Columbia, Pa., and Charles Sommers, of Lancaster, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Dorworth, Mr. and Mrs. William Hain, Mr. and Mrs. William Martin and their sons, Robert and Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Bird Hiestand and their daughter, Bessie, Misses Esther and Edna Wolf, Michael Wiedman, Emanuel Bentzel, Howard Spiekle, and Paul E. Fauth, all of York, Pa.

George H. Porter, Jr., of Philadelphia, has been to York to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Dorworth. Wilbur Dorworth lived in Philadelphia last year. He got work here as a weigh-master.

OKLAHOMA.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Gordon entertained with a most delightful dinner, Sunday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ogburn, of Chandler, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, of Keota, Okla. The guests of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hazzard and their daughter, all of Oklahoma City, and Henry Ogburn and Eddie Allen, sons of Mrs. Allen and Mr. Oscar Ogburn. In the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gamont the guests were entertained with a lawn party and ice cream was served.

The other guests who were invited were as follows: Misses Edith Bohaman of Kinita, Okla., Miss Alma Ward, Oliver Leonard, Irene Neal, Agnes Bohamon, and Jolly Dwyer, of Oklahoma City, and Miss Viola McCutchan, of Altus, Okla., Mr. Robert Rei, of Collinsville, Okla., Roscoe Ward, of Britton, Okla.

This entertainment was the greatest social event of the season, and probably in the history of the deaf of Oklahoma City.

In the evening the guests had a theatre party at the Metropolitan Theatre, which was greatly enjoyed by all. After the theatre party the entertainment ended.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ogburn, of Chandler, Okla., and Mrs. William Allen of Keota, Okla., left Oklahoma City for their homes.

Mr. Robert Rei, of Collinsville, Okla., was a visitor in Oklahoma City and a guest of Mr. Roscoe Ward, of Britton, Okla.

Mr. Roscoe Ward, of Britton, Okla., has been visiting in Oklahoma City, and the guest of his sister.

We understood that Mr. Guy Buckler, of Broken Arrow, Okla., who failed to accept the invitation of the Oklahoma City Social event, was on the sick list.

Mr. Jolly Dwyer, of Oklahoma City, and several deaf-mutes from Oklahoma City will be the guest of Mrs. Lackey in El Reno, Okla., on Sunday, July 11th.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column, should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or on a postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

The New York Council, No. 2, Knights of De l'Epee, wish to announce to their friends that their coming picnic will take place on Saturday, July 17, 1915. For full particulars, see advertisement in last page of JOURNAL. Elmhurst Park is one of the finest parks for an outing on Long Island. It affords first class accommodations for games, and has excellent bowling alleys—fit for a championship game for the deaf of Greater New York. There is "some" bowling fever among the deaf, and they have a chance to show their skill. If nothing prevents, Rev. Thomas A. Galvin, C.S.S.R., will be present to greet his friends. In case of rain, picnic will not be postponed as a large hall on the grounds has been engaged to hold games and dancing. The committee under Tom J. Grogan has prepared everything for the comfort of those who attend, and they will not be disappointed. It also has a large dancing pavilion.

The launching of the Silent Athletic Club, a newly organization, composed wholly of deaf-mutes, took place at the club's summer camp at Coney Island, N. Y., on Independence Day, July 4th, with much pomp and ceremony.

Seven pretty maidens, who were spending the week end at the camp as guests of the club, acted as sponsors. The ceremony outlined for the day was very simple and impressive and as a reminder of the occasion each member was given a ducking in the surf, but a few were fortunate enough to escape the severe drubbing by "sneaking out of the back door."

The club is composed of many young men of athletic calibre and will devote its interests mainly in athletics. Besides maintaining a summer camp at Coney Island, the club has a basket-ball team that is hard to be beaten, a formidable track and swimming team and also a superb gymnastic and wrestling team.

Negotiations are now under way for a monster basket-ball carnival with prominent deaf-mutes and hearing quintets for the winter.

At present the club has sixteen members on its roster with a dozen or so applicants for consideration. The temporary officers are as follows:

Harry J. Goldberg, President; Solomon Zimmerman, Vice-President; Emanuel Kaminsky, Secretary; Isadore Lovitch, Treasurer.

The roster of members includes: Nathan Sharr, Samuel Krienerk, Joseph Goldstein, Abraham Chaimowitz, Leonard Kramer, Isadore Blum, Benjamin Goldstein, Julius Kamanovitch, Joseph Schultz, Jack Teich, Isadore Levy and Isadore Zwickler.

The Silent Athletic Club will complete at the various outings given by New York deaf-mute organizations only if a trophy is awarded to the club scoring the highest number of points. It would be advisable for the Brooklyn Frats and the League of Elect Surds to advertise just what games they have arranged for their athletic programs, so that competing club can get into shape for the various track and field events.

Asbury Park, Staten Island and Atlantic City have nothing on New York City when it comes to babies and baby carriage parades.

New York City has been neglected in its exhibition of its youngest set of boys and girls, and it was up to the lower East side, which can so well fill the bill in the way of children, to scrub up its babies, get out its American flags and fall in line. Which it did last week, and thus the JOURNAL announce the fact because a deaf-mute figured in the show.

Lillian Podrusnick, the one-year-old daughter of a deaf and dumb mother, carried off all of the baby honors and the $2.50 gold piece. The judges counted appearances, health and clearness. Little Miss Podrusnick wore the cleanest and whitest of white baby frocks with pink bows every now and then. The pink and white color scheme was carried out in every detail, for when the wind blew, every one knew that the little white stockings were being held up by fancy bows of pink.

Both the prize-winning babies held impromptu receptions after the awards had been made. Eleven-year-old Rebecca Podrusnick, sister of Lillian, fully appreciated her importance as interpreter for both her mother and baby. When she thought that they had both been lionized enough she took them triumphantly home with a railing bodyguard of other mothers, carriages and babies, which grew as it travelled.

The following is taken from the New York World:

Floyd Bingham, a deaf-mute, of 333 West Fifty-eighth Street, according to his written story to the police, was held up and robbed by three men late last Thursday night near the Columbus Circle entrance to Central Park of a gold watch and $2.50.

Bingham went home and wrote this sentence on three slips of paper. "I accuse this man of robbing me in Central Park last Thursday." With the slips he returned to Columbus Circle on Friday night and watched in vain. Each night since he was on guard, and last evening he saw Edward Broderick, 19 years old, of 412 West Fifty-sixth Street, at Fifty-eighth Street and Eighth Avenue.

The mute went up to Policeman Deguire and displayed one of his slips of paper as he pointed to the man he accused. The policeman arrested Broderick. Bingham wrote out his charge in full at the station and Broderick was locked up.

Albert V. Ballin is spending his summer for the third time at Arverne, L. I., with his blind deaf-mute friend, Edwin S. Mosbacher. He reports that Edwin has made great progress in the art of basketry and that he is quite an expert in that line. He extends cordial welcome to any and all deaf-mutes who come to Arverne, and he is proud to show specimens of his skill. Not more than a mile from his house is situated the summer camp of the Clark boys and both of them are frequent visitors there. At this time the boys, who stay for longer than a week are Messrs. Sweid, Isidor Blumenthal, James H. Manning, of Hekimer, N. Y., and Robert Bennett, of Paterson, N. J. Last Tuesday evening, all these boys with Mr. Ballin and Mr. George Oberback had the rare treat of seeing Silent Martin, the famous deaf-mute prize-fighter in a fierce boxing match with J. Farrell and come out victorious at the end of a ten-round bout. Hitherto Silent Martin never lost a battle, and by the looks of his physique, endurance and cleverness he is bound to make a great name for himself.

Mr. George S. Porter, of Trenton, N. J., has been spending a few days in town as the guest of A. L. Pach. He enjoyed a number of outings, took in the double header at the Polo Ground on the 5th. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kane, Miss Spanton and Mr. C. J. LeClereq also lent a hand at entertaining the Silent Worker publisher nicely. The honor of being a grandfather rests lightly on Mr. Porter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lindhoff, mother of Miss Lillian Lindhoff, died on Monday morning, July 12th, 1915. The funeral was held from her late home Wednesday evening, July 14th, 1915. The many friends of Miss Lindhoff extend to her their sincere sympathy in her great loss.

Mr. J. Landau, president of the German-American Society of the Deaf, and Mr. John Majerczyk, spent a day in visiting Atlantic City last week. They had a very enjoyable day, and intend to visit Atlantic City again some time in August.

Mrs. E. Piker, of 554 W. 183d Street has taken a bungalow at Rockaway Park and will have as guests for the summer Miss Dorothy Blum and the Misses Schoenfeld daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Schoenfeld.

Walter J. Hall hopes to attend the Picnic and Games of Knights of De l'Epee, New York Council No. 2, this Saturday, because he is a member of Knights of De l'Epee, Newark, No. 4.

Martha Labishiner, sister of Mrs. David Wasserman, of Amsterdam, N. Y., died last Saturday in New York City. Her father was a noted Republican leader.

F. W. Nubser by order of his physician is subsisting entirely on milk—sweet or sour—for three weeks.

Miss Emma F. Caddy is spending the month of July at Fort Edward, N. Y.

Syracuse, N. Y.

The Frats of the Syracuse Division, No. 47, N. F. S. D., were unfortunate in their choice of a day (Saturday, July 3d) for the second annual picnic. The steady down-pour of rain all the afternoon with no immediate prospect of a letup, deterred many of the deaf friends from going to Long Branch to spend the day with them.

But in spite of fact, this affair was largely attended by the members from Utica and Rochester Division, Nos. 45 and 51 respectively, many of whom remained over Sunday and Monday, was successful in every respect.

The ball game between the Frats and Non-Frats, the honors went to the Frat team by 3 to 2. The battery for the winning team was Rob't E. Conley, Sam McAllister and Fred Lloyd; while for the losing team, Robert Mayershofer and Theo. Hoffman. After that the athletic events began, which were not completely played, owing to the bad weather.

Dinner and supper were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Syracuse. Everybody enjoyed greatly this pleasant picnic.

OHIO.

[News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 993 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

July 10th, 1915.—We were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. J. W. Jones' aged mother at her home in Hantessville, O. Her mother had been in poor health for over a year. Superintendent Jones and family attended the funeral.

Mr. Elwood Sarber and wife, of Canal Winchester, were in the city as guests of Mrs. Sarber's sister.

Messrs. John Wondrack and Nobert Pillold stopped in the city on their way home from Gallaudet College. Judging their looks, college life agrees with them.

Mr. Elasco Burcham and Miss Mary Rauch, dressed in the best and with faces wreathed in smiles, bled themselves to Buckeye Lake one Sunday recently, and needless to say, enjoyed their all too short outing.

A card has been received from Mr. B. A. Greener written on July 2d, at Santa Barbara, where he was going on to San Francisco. Mr. Greener met Messrs. Teegarden and Currier while in Santa Barbara.

Seven boys remained at the school for awhile to assist in the house-cleaning and painting and incidentally to add to their bank accounts. The painters assisting Mr. Mayer are Isaac Croezen, William Kurtz, Clifford Dille and Louis Seinensohn. Those exercising their arms at cleaning are Estell Barry, Otto Seidowski and Walter Kunz.

The grounds at the School for the Deaf are far from quiet these days. One of the neighboring churches is conducted a summer Bible school with an attendance of over two hundred children. Superintendent Jones has kindly allowed this school use of the grounds for a play ground, as the church has no suitable yard. So children under the supervision of teachers are daily seen romping and playing on the school grounds.

Mrs. Albert Ohlemacher entertained in honor of Mrs. Ottenbacher (Eva Matthews,) of Indianapolis, Friday evening. Mrs. Ottenbacher's friends were glad of the chance to meet her and to behold her little three-months-old son. The evening was pleasantly spent in conversation. Delicious punch and nabisco wafers were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Zorn, Mr. and Mrs. Wark, Mr. and Mrs. Clum, Mrs. J. Leib, Mrs. Callison, Mrs. Mayer, Mr. Schory, Misses Biggam, Dillon, Druggan, Edgar and Lamson.

Mrs. Ottenbacher is visiting her parents on Sherman Avenue, and her little one is the idol of his grandparents' eyes. Mrs. and Miss Edgar accompanied by the latter's two sisters, were visitors at the home last Sunday. Miss Edgar conducted a service for the residents. She and Mrs. Callison, being on the committee to assist at the July 5th picnic, remained over night.

Mr. Ernest Zell spent the week end at the home as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chapman. The picnic was a pleasant affair and the day just right for a day outdoors. Every one present had a genuine good time.

The threatening clouds probably kept some timid ones from venturing out so far from the city. A little over $20.00 was cleared and all goes to the Hall Improvement Fund. A feeling of goodwill prevailed all through the day.

In the ball throwing contest, Mr. H. Weber won and his prize was a fine ball.

In the fifty yard dash for children, the prizes were won by a brother and sister named Nutt from Central College.

In the nailing contest the women each had a chance to show her ability with hammer and nails. Mrs. George Clum was declared the winner, and received a set of kitchen cabinet jars.

The pie eating contest was the most amusing, perhaps. This was won by Mr. G. Mann, of Central College, and his grin showed that he was pleased to get fifty cents for his ability at pie eating.

In the water carrying contest Mrs. Callison came off the winner and received a water set.

The bouncing ball contest for girls was won by Helen Ohlemacher and she received a tennis racket. The same contest for boys was won by Archie Mann, of Central College.

Other games were tug-of-war for both men and women and the gladiator fight. Mr. Howard Weber carried off the prize in the latter.

The next picnic is to come off on Labor Day and will be in charge of the Columbus Branch of the N. A. D. Particulars will be given later.

Mr. William Allen, of Portsmouth, was at the picnic. He has been visiting friends in this city for a week.

During a storm Sunday evening, part of a tree fell across and tore down the wires that carry the electricity to the main building at the Home, but this did not interfere with the current at all and the building was lighted as usual.

The painters from Westerville have transformed the ball at the Home into a thing of beauty.

The three rooms on the first floor under the care of the Columbus Ladies' Aid Society have also been made beautiful. All the paper was torn off and the walls given four coatings of paint and a soft finish, resembling frescoing. The Superintendent's dining room was also treated in the same manner, and makes a pleasing room. The kitchen was painted and then varnished. After the new cottage for the men is a reality the Home will be "a thing of beauty and a joy forever," to the Ohio deaf.

B. M. E.

St. Louis Briefs.

The closing exercises of the Gallaudet School was held in the auditorium of the Teachers College. Miss Herdman had general charge of the program for the evening. Miss Roper, Miss Steidemann and Mrs. Temple gave demonstrations of school room methods. There was a fine display of manual training work by the pupils. The Rt. Rev. F. F. Johnson, D.D., Bishop Co-adjutor of Missouri, made the address. Diplomas were awarded to Janie Fulkerson, Doris Jackson and John Rooney—all of whom may return to take the college preparatory work.

St. Thomas Mission Guild held its last meeting before the summer recess at the home of Mrs. Charles Wess in Belleville, Ill. Regular monthly meeting will be resumed in September. The Guild has had a successful year, and the members are already making plans for more aggressive work in the fall.

Messrs. Burgherr and Arnot represent the St. Louis Division at the Omaha Convention. Messrs. Stumpe, Bloch and Remhardt also go to Omaha as visiting members. After the Convention they will go to California to see the Expositions. Miss Clara L. Steidemann is conducting a private summer school for deaf children. The little ones are most fortunate to have such a splendid opportunity under competent direction.

Mr. A. O. Steidemann is conducting Sunday services at St. Thomas Mission during the absence of the minister, who is spending some weeks in California.

Miss Tipton, whose parents are graduates of the Illinois School, but for years have resided in Kansas, was a recent visitor in the city, visiting relatives.

Mr. Paul Erd was a recent visitor in the city, and attended the Gallaudet School picnic.

Miss Mary K. Cloud is spending her vacation with her parents in the city. She taught at the Kansas City day school the past year and has been reappointed for next year with an increase in salary.

Miss Annie M. Roper, Miss Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Rodenberger and a very few others from these parts attended the recent reunion and State convention at the Illinois School at Jacksonville.

Mr. Abraham Bloom is in the local sanitarium. He has been receiving attention for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Mattie Merrell and her daughter are visiting in Toledo, O., the guest of Mrs. Curry.

Pittsfield, Mass.

Mr. Hines, of Waterbury, Ct., was the guest of Mr. Walter Sears last week, and when Mr. Sears came to the city to sell his vegetables Thursday he brought Mr. Hines along to get acquainted with all the deaf people in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Turgeon are the parents of a son, born last month, named James, after Mrs. Turgeon's father. It is their second son.

Mrs. Francis O'Rourke has returned home from Lowell, where she was employed for two months with her sister in some mill.

Miss Hattie Blessing's parents have moved to Plunkett Street, where Hattie's grandmother lives.

Miss Jennie Hillis, of Rome, N. Y., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford. They spent Sunday in Great Barrington, Mass., and returned in time for Jennie to catch the 20th Century Limited train to her home in Rome, N. Y.

Mrs. Arthur Richter has secured a position in the Berkshire steam laundry on Northup Street.

Robert Burdick, of North Adams, Mass., was the guest of the Bedfords, Sears and Trainers for the past week.

Richard Trainor, who has been employed in Williamstown, Mass., for some months, has returned to his brother John's house on Lincoln street.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Small, of Dalton, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, of Schenectady, N. Y., July fourth.

Mrs. C. S. Risely's brother, Mr. Joseph Boyer Loucke, soon leaves for San Francisco, from that place he sails for Shanghai, China, where he will represent the Standard Oil Company.

Miss Felicia Miller, of Little Falls, N. Y., has been the guest of Mrs. Fred Gagner and Mr. Harold Burdick, in North Adams. On her departure Mrs. Gagner and Mr. Burdick accompanied her for a few days to stay at the Millers' Camp at Scandiga Park, N. Y.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reider, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. Joseph Roberts, of Bristol, Pa., and his married daughter, Mrs. E. Smith, of Frankford, Philadelphia, were visitors at All Souls' Church for the Deaf on Sunday, the Fourth.

Mr. Roberts was educated in the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf when it was located at Broad and Pine Streets, years ago. He is hale and hearty, and is in his eighty-fourth year. He buried his wife about seven weeks ago.

Mrs. Frank Faust, Sr., of Gerardville, Pa., with her mother, Mrs. Horace Niedhammer, of Philadelphia, were interesting visitors at All Souls' Church on the Fourth. Mrs. Faust was a former pupil at Broad and Pine Streets.

Messrs. Frank Bonner and Abraham Shine, both of New York City, called at the Rooms of the Clero Literary Association under the guidance of Mr. Harry S. Suckie, of this city, last week.

Mr. Leandro A. Maldonado, of San Francisco, Cal., and a graduate of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf, is sojourning a fortnight in Philadelphia as guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kuhn, the latter a newlywed couple. Mr. Maldonado is filling a lucrative position in his father's extensive plant in Import and Export Coffee, Tea and Spices as head Cashier. He expects to be away in Eastern part of the country all summer.

Mr. Wallace D. Edington, of Washington, D. C., a recent graduate of Gallaudet College, is visiting in Philadelphia. He is much seen in company with our Johnny Roach.

Miss Hannah Reidy went to her home in Bradford, Pa., last Friday for the summer, and will return to her duties in Mr. Syle's household in September.

Mr. James N. Gilmore has gone to Atlantic City for two weeks.

Mr. George Wainwright and Miss Mauida Griffith, both graduates of the New Jersey School for the Deaf, at Trenton, N. J., were married by the Rev. C. Orvis Dantzer at All Souls' Church, on the third inst.

Dr. John B. Hotchkiss and daughter, both of Washington, D. C., motored to Philadelphia from their home city last week.

Miss Alice Manning, of Lynn, Mass., and Miss Fanny Bass, of Trenton, N. J., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Sanders indefinitely.

Mr. Wm. H. Lipsett read services at All Souls' Church for the Pastor. The latter is now on his way to California and expects to remain until September.

Rev. F. C. Smielan, of Allentown, Pa., celebrated Holy Communion at All Souls' Church on the fourth inst.

Remember all aboard for Wildwood-by-the-Sea this Saturday, July 17th. Special train leaves market St. Ferries, Philadelphia side, at 7 A.M. Adult's ticket will be one dollar each, children's between the ages of five and twelve, fifty cents each.

Party is request to be at the Camden Terminal of the Pennsylvania Railroad as early as possible before 7 A.M., and a car will be reserved for them.

Dinner tickets, at fifty cents each, can be had from H. E. Stevens, on the train en route. Also bathing tickets at twenty-five cents each. All are requested to report to Mr. Stevens before going on the car that proper attention from the Committee may be given them.

A garden party was given last Saturday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scott, to raise funds for travelling expenses of the Delegate-at-large, to represent the St. Cecilia Council, No. 3, Ladies of De l'Epee of Philadelphia to the General Convention. The latter will be held at Buffalo, N. Y., on July 31st. Mrs. Scott has been chosen as the delegate. Mrs. M. Tate and Mrs. R. Fisher will also attend.

Among the Philadelphia Catholic folks, who will attend the Knights of De l'Epee General Convention at Buffalo, N. Y., on July 31st, are: Messrs. E. E. Scott, Joseph Mayer, Jr., William Eragon, F. J. Feighan and probably two others. They go over the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Under the auspices of the Philadelphia Knights of De l'Epee, a moonlight excursion will take place on July 30th, down the river. Boat leaves Arch St. wharf at eight o'clock sharp and tickets will be twenty-five cents each. A grand time is looked for.

A quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday, June 16th, that of Miss Marion Zell, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Zell, to Mr. Horace J. Allen, of Essentton, Pa. The scene was at the bride's parent's residence, in Roxborough, Philadelphia. They will reside with Mrs. Allen's family on their return from an extended tour in the East. Mr. Allen is assistant foreman in the Bromley Lace Mills, 22d and Lehigh Avenue, this city.

Miss Edith Zell, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Zell, is studying the profession of trained nurse at the Jamestown Hospital, Philadelphia.

A hearing brother of Mrs. Richard

Ormrod died two weeks ago after a lingering illness of four year's standing. His remains were interment in a cemetery in Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Persis S. Bowden, of Mt. Airy, Pa., announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen, to Mr. Alexander McGhee, of Philadelphia.

The Misses Dorothy and Margaret Sanders were hostesses at a little gathering July 9th, when two recent Gallaudet College graduates, Mr. Alpha W. Patterson, of Fort Smith, Ark., and Mr. Wallace Edington, of Washington, D. C., were guests of honor. Those who gathered to meet them were: Mrs. P. S. Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. Erhard Stecker, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, the Misses Louise Sadelmeyer, Helen Nickel, Esther Rappaport, Rhea Schweriner, Helena Bowden and Messrs. John A. Roach, Alexander McGhee, Mayer Bailiff and Albert Rothmund.

H. E. S.

WASHINGTON.

After an illness of several months, Mrs. Frederick Bernsdorff, mother of Elmore E. Bernsdorff, peacefully passed away at Sibley Hospital early in the morning of the 29th of June. Funeral services were held at Zurhorts Undertaking establishment, 3d and East Capitol Streets, the same evening at 5 o'clock, Rev. A. D. Bryant and a hearing clergyman officiating. The body was immediately thereafter taken to Union Station and transported to Maywood, Pa., Mrs. Bernsdorff's old home for interment. The grief-stricken son and grandson accompanied the body to its last resting place. The floral remembrances were many and beautiful, one being tendered by Calvary Baptist Mission and another by Washington Division No. 46, N. F. S. D. Several of Mr. Bernsdorff's brother members of the Frat acted as pall bearers. The many friends of Mr. E. E. Bernsdorff extend to him their sincere sympathy.

The death of Prof. Allen B. Fay of Gallaudet College, at George Washington University Hospital, July 5th after an operation for appendicitis came as a distinct shock to the many friends of the Fay family in Washington and elsewhere. Mr. Fay had been suddenly attacked with acute appendicitis and had been rushed to the hospital, where an operation was performed. The physicians and surgeons in attendance pronounced the operation successful and bright hopes were held out for his ultimate recovery. Complications arose however, over which the skill of the surgeons was vain. We were told that realizing his end was near Mr. Fay said, "I am sorry to leave my beloved family and friends, but I am not afraid to die." The funeral was held from the Fay home at Kendall Green and the body interred in Rock Creek Cemetery. To the bereaved family we extend our most profound sympathy.

Rev. A. D. Bryant and family are now safely ensconced at their beautiful summer home, Indian Neck, near Branford, Ct., where we are sure they will get a much needed rest. At the request of the Rev. G. H. Hefflon, Rev. Bryant will preach to several of Rev. Hefflon's congregations during the summer. On July 4th Rev. Bryant was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience at Wethersfield near Hartford, Ct.; July 11th he will preach at Milford, Ct., and other assignments will be made later.

Billy Pfunder, the Washington delegate, and John Flood as a visitor to the N. F. S. D. Convention at Omaha, departed from Washington for the Convention City on the 2d of July. Billy taking with him his avoirdupois while Johnny lugged his "Charley Chaplin" mustache along. Both are expected back some time during the month.

Mr. Irby H. Marchman spent his Fourth of July holidays at Norfolk, Old Point and Ocean City. By the tales of his adventures down there, it is judged that he had the time of his life during his short stay at those gay resorts. Mr. Marchman is now visiting his folks in Georgia and will probably be away all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Tschiffely recently returned to Rockville, Md., from Ruskin, Florida, where they have been making their home for the past couple of years. After a protracted visit with their many relatives and friends hereabouts, they will return to the sunny south-land.

Mrs. J. C. Dowell's birthday falls on the 5th of June, and in order that she should not forget the fact, hubby Dowell invited a lot of friends to their pretty home to remind her thereof. The crowd responded nobly and made merry till the wee sma' hours. Mrs. Dowell was the recipient of many nice and useful presents.

Rev. and Mrs. Merrill leave this week for Atlantic City. Rev. Merrill will remain there a few days and will then go to Philadelphia, where he is expected to fill the pulpit at All Souls' Church July 18th. Mrs. Merrill will remain at the seashore indefinitely.

Mrs. P. L. Boswell expects to leave for Brooklyn, N. Y., about July 17th and thus add one more to the steadily growing list of grass widowers around here.

The anticipation of her annual visit to mamma by Mrs. W. E. Marshall will soon be realized as she expects to shortly leave for the maternal home in Massachusetts. Mr. W. E. Marshall spent the fourth in the neighborhood of New York. He says he had a big time there.

Mrs. Max Hartion and child are now visiting relatives and friends in and near Providence, R. I.

Mr. John S. Edelen will leave about the third of August for a month's trip through Western Maryland. Frostburg, Md., will be his headquarters while there.

Dr. J. B. Hotchkiss went overland in his automobile to Philadelphia, Pa., a short time ago. He took Wallace Edington along with him. We hope that nothing got out of gear that would necessitate Wallace's getting out and pushing the machine along, like one of our number did several years ago when Frank Windeman's auto refused to run.

Mr. and Mrs. Edington expect to spend several days at Atlantic City during July. Their daughter, Miss Maud, will spend her vacation nearer home, Chesapeake Beach being her intended rendezvous.

Several of our people expect to attend the convention of the Pennsylvania Deaf at Gettysburg in August. Had not the convention of the Virginia Deaf been postponed, quite a delegation of Washingtonians would have been on hand at Hampton, Va. OCCASIONAL.

Los Angeles Briefs

The Rev. C. E. Webb, of Pomona, has been restored to the priesthood by Bishop Johnson, of the Diocese of Los Angeles. Rev. Mr. Webb was born in England, entered the University of the Episcopal Church, and for three years worked in the diocese of Colorado. His hearing began to gradually leave him and he was obliged to give up his parish. Later he affiliated with the Methodists, took up social welfare work and became editor of a paper devoted to the interests of that propaganda. A year or so ago he became interested in the work of the church among the deaf, sought restoration to the priesthood, and will hereafter devote his time to the welfare of the deaf. He is a member of the local club and of the N. F. S. D. He is making fair progress in learning the sign language. He expects to assume full charge of the local work when the Rev. Dr. Cloud, who is here for the summer, returns east.

Mr. John H. Geary was confirmed at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, by Bishop Johnson, on the morning of July 2d. The candidate was presented by the Rev. C. E. Webb. The Rev. Dr. J. H. Cloud interpreted the service into the sign language.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their wedding recently. Over forty of their local friends were at the celebration, and numerous gifts bore ample testimony of the high appreciation in which Mr. and Mrs. Stafford are held by the community.

The Los Angeles Frats, their wives and lady friends, gave Mrs. Ellis a farewell surprise party at the home of the latter, in Huntington Park, on a recent evening. Mrs. Ellis leaves shortly, with her children, for her parental home in Iowa, where she may remain probably a year. During her absence Mr. and Mrs. Haworth will have charge of the Huntington Park residence.

Mr. Arnold Kiene has the General Agency for Southern California for a leading insurance company and has opened an office in one of the newest and finest office buildings in Los Angeles. The Kiene family are located at Long Beach for the summer.

The Los Angeles Frats are planning a special treat for visiting Frats on the evening of July 28th. The affair will be at the home of Brother Doane, secretary of the local Division, 4731 Budlong Avenue.

The Rev. Dr. J. H. Cloud, of St. Louis, is officiating on Sunday, both morning and afternoon, at St. Paul's Parish House, and also conducts the Wednesday evening meetings at the same place.

Mrs. Alice T. Terry left July 1st, for a month's stay in San Francisco and vicinity. She will, of course, visit the Exposition and attend the meeting of the N. A. D.

The Rev. C. O. Dantzer, pastor of All Souls' Church for the Deaf, Philadelphia, is expected to visit Los Angeles after the N. A. D. Convention at San Francisco, and to officiate, while here, at the Mission, 523 South Olive Street.

Baptist Minister to the Deaf

Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio.

REV. E. CLAYTON WYAND, M.A.

Ordained Minister.

SERVICES OPEN TO AND FOR ALL. The minister makes a specialty of Reading and Lectures for Social organizations. Assembly rooms furnished free anywhere in above States.

Address: Keedysville, Md.

William Edward is entertaining his grandmother, Mrs. Knight, from Vermont.

Mrs. John Trainor expects to leave sometime this month to visit her brother, Mr. Haugby, in Long Island, N. Y.

FANWOOD.

Old-timers of two or three decades ago who would put into practice their oft-expressed wish to pay Fanwood a visit, would be staggered to see the changes in the surroundings of the Institution the passing of time has made. While once the school was a landmark for miles around, each year sees it hemmed in more and more by the building of apartment houses.

On the north, at 165th Street, the Institution narrowly escapes being overtopped by a hill, behind which tower the apartment houses of 171st Street, and the Twenty-second Regiment Armory building on 168th Street. The former American League grounds on the northeast are being leveled to provide a site for a new hospital, intended to be the largest and most up-to-date in the United States. Where the greenhouses and Mansion House once stood among picturesque and beautiful surroundings, the ground has been blasted to street level, and ere long building operations will commence. On the south a tall apartment house stands within sixty feet of the fence that marks our southern boundary.

Hemmed in as we are on three sides by the growth of the city, our view to the Hudson river remains, unobstructed, assurance of a cool and fresh breeze in the hottest days of summer.

While still retaining one of the most healthful locations, we are able to grasp all the advantages which living in or near the big city afford. Compared with the old methods of transportation, walking to the Eighth Avenue elevated or riding in a cable car, we have a subway station within a few blocks of the school, either north or south, while the Broadway or Amsterdam avenue cars can be said to almost pass our door at any time of the day or night.

So phenomenal has been the northward progress of the city, that, while once it was sufficient to distinguish the school by merely addressing it as Broadway and 163d street, the post-office authorities now requires the address to be written 99 Fort Washington Avenue.

Though Fanwood has lost something of its prestige as a landmark, its prestige for standard of scholarship and all other things has risen to a height never before equalled. We have the most thorough and up-to-date equipment possible under the circumstances. Our boys and girls win prizes for scholarship in competition with the hearing; our system of discipline is the best that can be devised; being such as to teach self-control without crushing independence and initiative. In military tactics our cadets rank 100 per cent in drilling, the three companies forming our battalion having won six competitions with hearing military organizations this year alone.

Instances of the great advance the school has made with the passing of a decade or two can be multiplied infinitely. The old-timers who come, see, take a long breath, and then begin to speak of the "good old days"—with the emphasis on the good—are suffering from observational myopia. They lament the loss of a horse chestnut tree here and a rock of the primeval period there, but fail to notice the beauty of vernal lawn where gullies and quagmires once were located.

"Idly as thou in that old day
Thou mourned, did thy sire repine
And in his time, thy child, grown gray,
Shall sigh for thine."

For life must on and upward go
The eternal step of progress beats
To that grand nation, calm and slow,
Which God repeats."

Last month August Herdtfelder, now on his vacation, organized a baseball team with intention of playing some hearing team this summer. He called his team the Deaf-Mute Juniors. The Deaf-Mute Jrs. had their first game with the Oriole A. C. and defeated them by the score of 5 to 3. It was a hot game, but with the fine pitching of Herdtfelder and the brilliant fielding of John Uhl, the Deaf-Mutes won. They have been booked to play a strong team called the Spartan A. C. some time this month.

The boys in the carpenter shop have, under the direction of Mr. Clearwater, been employed for the past week in smoothing the corners of the chair seats, to remove danger of splinters, etc. Afterwards Cadets Burke and Livingston, of the paint shop, give the entire chair a coat of shellac. The chairs are from the girls' sitting room, two hundred in number. The chairs in the boys' sitting room may be given a similar smoothing-off.

Chief Engineer Joseph H. Banks, with his assistants, is cleaning the boilers in the power house, and repairing whatever machinery may need attention in the laundry and trades schools.

Staff Captain Chester A. Allen, whose duties as Head Tutor include clerical work in the office while not employed on the grounds, is busy at present typewriting the schedules and forms for the routine of duties in the Fall.

On Sunday, July 11th, at South Beach, S. I., an enjoyable time was was had by Messrs. Charles Golden, Morris Elowitz, John Livingston, Max Cohen and Max Hoffman. Charles Golden, who is very strong, did some acrobatic stunts, which he knew the on-lookers would be pleased to see, on the sand. Charles was so pleased to know that he is able to swim a little that he could not be induced to come out of the water. Morris Elowitz, a graduate of 1915, who is accustomed to say, "I am too lazy to do anything," vigorously plunged into the water from the height of about ten feet and did the same again and again. John Livingston, whose home is in Staten Island, accompanied the boys to the beach. He took pictures of the acrobatic stunts and a group of the bunch while lunching. He, of course, can swim like a duck, but is afraid of diving from a height.

The New York Institution for the Deaf and Dumb recently petitioned, through its attorney, Thomas P. Conway, that the city release to the institution a strip of land slightly less than three feet in width, which runs along the eastern edge of the institution's grounds. The strip of ground marks the difference between the western line of the old Fort Washington Ridge Road and the westerly line of the present Fort Washington Avenue. At a recent meeting of the Sinking Fund Commission this petition was favorably reviewed and the land was ceded to the institution for a stipulated consideration and costs.—New York World, July 8th.

At present baseball does not seem to be the chief sport among the boys at Fanwood, as they can mostly be seen playing tennis, racing, reading and telling stories. Harry Barnes seems to be the greatest story-teller, always telling mysterious stories, which the boys are so fond of.

Last Tuesday Gonner Tingberg challenged John Livingston to a long distance race in the boy's sitting room and was defeated. John ran two miles in twelve minutes.

Saturday August Herdtfelder and August Wriede went crabbing and had pretty good luck. They are so fond of crabbing that they intend to go again this Saturday.

William Burke has earned the name of a "book-worm," because he can be seen reading whenever he has nothing else to do.

Charles Olsen, a graduate of the class of 1915, paid a visit to his Alma Mater, and made the time pass by very pleasantly chatting with the boys.

One of the busiest persons here is Mr. Paul Spanner, who, in addition to his duties as boys' tutor, is the Institution photographer. His time is fully occupied in printing negatives from the plates that have accumulated during the year.

Herbert Carpenter returned to school a week ago to spend the summer among his friends.

George St. Clair claims the handball championship of Fanwood. However, there are many disputants to his hold on the title.

BRIDGEPORT, CT.

DEAF-MUTES ORGANIZE.

After considerable deliberation and discussion the deaf mutes of this city have banded together under the name of the Park City Deaf-Mutes Society. At a recent meeting executive officers, to hold office for two years, were elected as follows: Lincoln C. Schindler, President; Herman Probst, Vice-President; James Kirk, Secretary; Joseph Youngs, Arthur Morris, and Robert Sweeney were made trustees.

In addition to the officers the other members of the society are: Mrs. O. A. Beers, Mrs. Lincoln C. Schindler, Mrs. Herman Probst, Mrs. James Kirk, Mrs. Joseph Youngs, Mrs. Arthur Morris, Channey Royden, Mrs. Channey Royden, John Blakney, Mrs. John Blakney, Mrs. Julia Gasso, Louis Hagin, Matthew Bakus and Jennie Wallin.

The object of this society is to bring the deaf people more closely together and make arrangements for the hundredth anniversary celebration of the foundation of the first school for deaf-mutes in America at Hartford in 1917. This celebration will probably be continued for two weeks as several large societies for deaf people will hold annual conventions at that time.

JAMES KIRK.

CHURCH MISSION TO DEAF MUTES.

NEW YORK DISTRICT NOTICES.

St. Ann's Church, N. Y. Every Sunday, 3 P.M.

St. Mark's Church, Brooklyn. Every Sunday, 3 P.M.

Holy Communion, July 25th.

Lutheran Mission

St. Matthew's Lutheran Church for the Deaf. Services in the sign-language in the church, 426 Broome Street, every Sunday at 3 P.M.

ARTHUR BOLL, Pastor.

PITTSBURGH

The deaf folk of Pittsburgh had their usual Fourth of July holiday on the fifth, and as usual went in for all it was worth, notwithstanding the fact that they are poor mixers. The Frat and the League people travelled in opposite directions for the enjoyment of the day. The League chose Keystone Park, a country resort out toward Butler, while the Frats decided that the School grounds, at Edgewood, was good enough for them.

The League report on attendance of 90 grown ups and a very pleasant outing altogether. It was cold enough to make all feel like keeping on the move, hence games and sports that required some exertion were popular.

Miss Elenore Stiner, of Ohio, took first prize in the handball contest and Mr. C. Reiser won the footrace over such competitors as W. L. Sawhill and others. We did not hear who were the winners in the weinerwurst and pie contests.

Hot coffee, weinerwurst and turtle soup were at a premium on account of the chilly weather. The former was dispensed by Mrs. W. L. Sawhill and the latter was concocted and served by A. Synder and J. Lipley, of Ohio. The latter was pronounced a No. 1 cook. The crowd returned to the city at 6 P.M.

The Frats out, at Edgewood, numbered 150, and while it was rather cool, old sol was gracious enough to play peek-a-boo from among the clouds most of the time. Here, too, some contests were indulged in, but no prizes awarded, so far as we heard. Ice-cream and lemonade were served in abundance, but some there were that would have preferred the fragrant coffee.

A strong wind, damp grass and low temperature combined to make it rather unpleasant to spread lunches under the trees, so Dr. Burt opened the boys' reading rooms for the use of the picnicers, and with the tables and chairs all there, it was a very welcome convenience.

Among those from a distance were: Charles and Herman Cook, of McGrann; Wm. Lemmon, of Mt. Pleasant; John A. Melvaine, Jr., of Washington, and Gny Montgomery and wife, of Donora.

At our table, either as host or guest, we noted the Misses Toomey, Marshall and Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Holliday, J. A. Melvaine and G. M. Teegarden, also Miss Finley, and Miss Jas. Conway and children.

Mr. Col. Sawhill was in evidence, but had to leave early to go to work. Mr. and Mrs. Bulger, of Ambridge, and Mrs. F. Farke were on hand to help make up a pleasant day for all. Mr. Walter Crouse, of New York, was with the crowd, making new friends. He is staying with his sister in East Liberty, and incidentally looking for work. Should he find a job, he will probably locate here permanently.

The Cook brothers told about the building of their automobile, a crack machine in every respect they claim, and we have it from a disinterested party that it really is all it is claimed to be. We hope to have a full description of how it was built and a picture of same to publish before long.

Miss Alice Teegarden is now on her return trip to the great Exposition and other interesting points in the sunset States. Occasional letters and cards indicate, she has been going and at the same time seeing a great deal worth seeing. She will rest up at Cleveland for a few days before she reaches the old home town.

Mrs. Hedrick, who was at the Institution for the Blind, has lost her position owing to a reduction of the force there. So there is one more looking for a situation.

The P. S. A. D. Branch met Saturday evening, July 10th, in business session. The usual reports were presented and accepted. Under the head of new business the delegate to the Gettysburg Convention was elected. Mr. Henry Bades secured the plum and according to numerous comments, he will be merited the honor for no one has done more solid and disinterested work for the branch than Mr. Bades has. He certainly will appropriately represent the hustle of the Pittsburgh Branch.

G. M. T.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTICES.

St. Francis Xavier's, 30 West 16th Street.—Instruction and Services in the College Hall, at 3:30 P.M., on the first and third Sundays of the month.

St. Rose's, 165th Street, west of Amsterdam Avenue.—Services and Catechism on Sundays at 9 A.M.

St. Vincent Ferrer's, Lexington Avenue and 66th Street.—Services and Catechism on Sundays at 9 A.M.

BROOKLYN.—Knights of Columbus Hall, Hanson Place and South Portland Avenue.—Religious Instruction at 3:30 P.M., on the fourth Sunday of the month.

Under the direction of

REV. M. R. MCCARTHY, S.J.

He who seeks a brother without a fault will have to remain without a brother.

LEE, HIGGINSON & CO.

NEW YORK BOSTON CHICAGO

INTERBOROUGH RAPID TRANSIT COMPANY

5% SINKING FUND BONDS
The Company is already earning more than sufficient to pay the entire interest and sinking fund on all the $156,000,000 bonds to be issued to increase the mileage 170 per cent.

The city subordinates the interest on its expenditure, allowing the Company to receive $14,769,000, or more than $5,000,000 above the amount required to pay the entire interest and sinking fund.

The sinking fund is more than sufficient to retire the entire $156,000,000.

$15,000,000

GOVERNMENT OF SWITZERLAND

FIVE PER CENT GOLD NOTES
The purpose of this loan is to provide funds to be applied to purchases of commodities in the United States.

$2,000,000

CITY OF MAISONNEUVE, P. Q.

FIVE PER CENT COUPON BONDS
These $2,000,000 bonds are issued directly by the City of Maisonneuve under a special statute of the Province of Quebec for the purchase of lands to form Maisonneuve Park.

The City of Maisonneuve, with an area of about two square miles, is located within the limits of the City of Montreal, by which it is bounded on three sides, the fourth side being made by the St. Lawrence River.

Write for Descriptive Circulars.

SAMUEL FRANKENHEIM
CORRESPONDENT
18 WEST 107TH STREET
NEW YORK CITY

Fourth Annual PICNIC AND OUTING

under the auspices of the

Lutheran Guild of the Deaf

at
WHITE HOUSE PARK
Rockaway Ave. and 95th St.
CANASTOT, L. I.

On Saturday Afternoon,
August 14, 1915

Prize Bowling and New Games. Fine Prizes. If weather is unfavorable, arrangements are made for large hall.

Admission, - 25 Cents
ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE
John Heil, Jr., Chairman
Miss K. Christgau Mrs. W. Nebel
Miss A. Lindenschmidt Erich Berg
A. Donas L. Rubenstein

Directions—Take Broadway "L" via Canastota from Chambers Street under Municipal Building, or take Hamburg Avenue Trolley car.

Theo. I. Lounsbury

Book
Job and Commercial
Printer

Convention Proceedings
Institution Reports
Institution Stationery
Society and Church Work

204 East 59th St.
NEW YORK

ALPHABET CARDS.
50 Cards, with name, .35
100 " " " .60
200 " " " 1.10
50 Cards, without name .25
100 " " " .50
200 " " " 1.00

Cash in advance. Stamps preferred. Stamps must be sent for reply to inquiries, or for sample.

Theodore I. Lounsbury,
204 East 59th Street.

Many Reasons Why You Should Be a Frat

Brooklyn Division, No. 23, N.F.S.D., meets at Imperial Hall, 369 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., first Saturday of each month. It offers exceptional provisions in the way of Life Insurance and Sick Benefits and unusual social advantages. If interested write to either officers, Thomas J. Cosgrove, Secretary, 346 Hoyt Street, Brooklyn or Louis A. Colick, State Organizer, 619 W. 144th St., New York.

NOTICE.

The Thirty-sixth Annual Convention of the Maine Mission of the Deaf will be at Richmond, Me., August 28, 29 and 30, 1915. For particulars apply to either:

A. L. CARLISLE, President,
27 Forest Ave., Bangor, Me.

OR
FANNIE KIMBALL, Secretary,
20 Gilman St., Portland, Me.

Baltimore Methodist Deaf-Mute Mission.

Rev. D. E. Moylan, Pastor, 740 W. Fayette Street.
Rev. J. A. Brandlick, Assistant, 2704 Bernard Street.

Services at Christ M. E. Church for the Deaf, Pierce Street, corner of Schroeder Street, every Sunday at 3:30 P.M. Sunday School at 2:30 P.M. Week day meetings every Thursday evening at eight o'clock, except during July and August. Holy Communion first Sunday each month. Everybody welcome.

FOURTH ANNUAL

PICNIC AND GAMES

OF THE

Knights of De l'Epee

TO BE HELD AT

Elmhurst Hotel Park and Casino

Jackson Ave. and 25th St., Elmhurst, Long Island

MUSIC BY PROF. O. A. TABORSKY'S ORCHESTRA

ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE:

THOMAS J. GROGAN, Chairman

JOHN M. O'DONNELL

WILLIAM HANSEN

JOHN AGREST

LESTER HIGGINS

SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1915

Admission, - 25 Cents

DIRECTIONS TO THE PARK

From Queensboro Bridge 2d Ave. and 59th St.—Take either Flushing or College Point car to the park direct.

From Brooklyn Bridge—Take Flushing Ave. to Manaphy, transfer for North Beach car to Jackson Ave. and walk to left.

From Delancey St Bridge Grand St—Take North Beach car to Jackson Ave. and walk to left.

If weather is unfavorable, arrangements are made for Large Hall

Second Annual

PICNIC

OF

Utica Division, No. 45

N. F. S. D.

Saturday, July 31, 1915

AT

SYLVAN BEACH

Particulars Later.

JAMES DINGMAN, JR., Chairman.

THOMAS KINSELLA

FRANK O. LEE

SAMUEL MCALLISTER

27th YEAR

THE LEAGUE OF ELECT SURDS

GIVES ITS

Annual Outing and Games

AT

ULMER PARK ATHLETIC FIELD

ON

Saturday, August 14, 1915

Gates open at 1 P.M. Games begin at 2:30 P.M.

MUSIC BY PROF. B. HILGEMAN

TICKETS, - 25 CENTS

AN IDEAL OUTING

Near the Sea Shore. Fine place to bring the whole family to spend the day.

Will be the Championship Baseball Game, Track and Field Events. Also games for Ladies.

Dancing with First Class Music in the Evening. A very enjoyable outing. Good order.

DIRECTIONS

Take the "West End Elevated Line from the Manhattan Terminal of Brooklyn Bridge, and get off at "Ulmer Park," and walk two blocks.

BASEBALL GAME WILL INTEREST

TRACK AND FIELD EVENTS EXCITE

AND OTHER THINGS AMUSE ALL

ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE:

ANTHONY CAPELLI, MAX MILLER, HENRY C. KOHLMAN

ANNUAL

Picnic and Games

OF

Brooklyn Div. No. 23, N. F. S. D.

AT

ULMER PARK

(Athletic Field)

Saturday, August 28, 1915

Tickets - 25 Cents

ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE.—Thomas J. Cosgrove, Chairman; A. Berg, M. Lubin, J. E. Graham, F. A. Brown, H. Hanneman, J. Kleber, Jr., L. Davis, W. Anfort, J. Zeles.

DON'T YOU WANT some manual alphabet post-cards to send or give your friends. We have them with large and small alphabets. They are fine. Send five cents in stamps for sample and price list.

ELWELL SPECIALTY CO

618 N. 35th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

ANNUAL

PICNIC AND GAMES

OF THE

Knights of De l'Epee

TO BE HELD AT

Elmhurst Hotel Park and Casino

Jackson Ave. and 25th St., Elmhurst, Long Island

MUSIC BY PROF. O. A. TABORSKY'S ORCHESTRA

ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE:

THOMAS J. GROGAN, Chairman

JOHN M. O'DONNELL

WILLIAM HANSEN

JOHN AGREST

LESTER HIGGINS

SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1915

Admission, - 25 Cents

DIRECTIONS TO THE PARK

From Queensboro Bridge 2d Ave. and 59th St.—Take either Flushing or College Point car to the park direct.

From Brooklyn Bridge—Take Flushing Ave. to Manaphy, transfer for North Beach car to Jackson Ave. and walk to left.

From Delancey St Bridge Grand St—Take North Beach car to Jackson Ave. and walk to left.

If weather is unfavorable, arrangements are made for Large Hall

Second Annual

PICNIC

OF

Utica Division, No. 45

N. F. S. D.

Saturday, July 31,